

VCC 2022 COVID-19 Guidelines

This Document Last Updated October 31st 2021

Vancouver Challenge Cup will be following the COVID-19 health guidelines of the BC Provincial Health Officer. These guidelines will be continuously updated without notice to comply with the current provincial regulations. In the event of any conflict or difference between this page and the provincial health order, the order is correct and legal and must be followed. Failure for competitors and spectators to comply will result in immediate expulsion from the event.

Proof of Vaccination:

Upon Entry, by order of the Provincial Health Officer (PHO), proof of full vaccination is required to access this event for everyone 12 and older. All patrons, staff, and officials must show upon entry proof in the form of a vaccine card that the person is fully vaccinated along with a piece of government issued photo ID. Proof of vaccination does not need to be shown by a person under 12 years of age, or a person 12-21 years of age who is a registered competitor at the Vancouver Challenge Cup.

Mask Guidelines:

Masks must be worn in all indoor public spaces throughout B.C. to help slow the transmission of COVID-19. People 5 and older must wear masks in indoor public settings, regardless of vaccination status.

Competitors must wear a mask at all times to and from the dance floor and while not actively competing. Masks may be worn or removed on the dance floor while actively competing. Coaches, judges and staff/volunteers must wear a mask at all times to and from the dance floor and while not engaging in competition. We strongly recommend that coaches, and staff/volunteers continue to wear mask even while participating on the dance floor.

Participants must follow facility protocols about the use of masks at all times.

Spectator Guidelines:

“Spectator” means a person who attends the event, but does not include an organizer, event staff member, official, performer, competitor, officiant, or any other person who is acting in an official or service capacity;

1. There is seating available for each spectator, and each spectator is assigned to a seat.
2. Spectators stay in the seat to which they are assigned, and do not move from seat to seat.
3. Spectators remain seated, unless movement is necessary for the purpose of the event, or in order to:
  - a. be served at a serving counter, obtain a meal or snack in a take-away container, or use a self-serve food or drink station,
  - b. use washroom facilities,
  - c. provide assistance to another person who requires care or first aid, or
  - d. leave or return to the place.
